

Read, Log, Win!

Join Lapeer District Library for our 2021 Summer Library Program, Tails & Tales! The Summer Library Program (SLP) will run June 11 – August 6 with virtual events, take home crafts kits and reading programs with amazing prizes for kids, teens and adults!

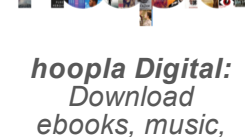

Click here to search for books, DVDs, magazines, and more!

View UPCOMING EVENTS at all our branches on our online calendar.

Each age group's reading program is available virtually through the website and app, Beanstack. All readers can register for the program, log their reading and enter prize drawings online through Beanstack. Prize drawings will take place at the end of the program, with each age group having their own set of drawings.

2021 Summer Library Program Information

hoopla Digital: Download ebooks, music, movies, and more, all for free.

MeL.org: Inter-library loan and free access to articles, books, homework help, and more

Take & Make Craft Kits

During the Summer Library Program, all LDL branches will have various crafts available for visitors to pick up and complete at home. Craft Away kits for kids are available at all LDL branches, available on a first come, first serve basis and do not require registration. There will be a new Craft Away available each week during SLP. Take & Make craft kits for teens and adults will be available at the deAngeli Branch Library and require registration. Contact your local LDL branch for more information about available craft kits and programs.

OverDrive: Download bestselling audiobooks and ebooks, free with your library card

For the Kids Reading Program, everyone who logs at least 25 days will receive a free book and an plush animal reading buddy. Little readers who read over 25 days can also pick up another free book. Grand prizes for the Kids Reading Program include a pizza party, a family membership to Seven Ponds Nature Center, early literacy kits, an outdoor movie kit that includes a projector and screen, and more.
